

The Historic Tax Credit Program & Appropriate Design

Presented by

THE LANDMARK SOCIETY OF WESTERN NEW YORK

Grab your lunch and head over to Erdman Anthony’s offices at the Culver Road Armory for an insider’s view of the historic tax credit programs. Experts from the Buffalo-based historic preservation firm, Preservation Studios, will present an overview of the state and federal historic tax credit program with a specific focus on designing within the Department of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation.

Tuesday, February 18th
12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Erdman Anthony Training Room,
Culver Road Armory,
145 Culver Road, Rochester, NY

Registration: $5

Visit www.aiaroc.org to register.

(NOTE: Lunch will not be provided. Please bring your own.)

Hurry—space is limited!

AIA/CES credits available.

Workshop will be led by

Jason Yots, Phillip Borrelli, Michael Puma and Derek King of Preservation Studios

photography by Richard Margolis

